Scheduled Downtime Duration 9 years ago

Update: Sun Aug 1 05:31 UTC 2010

Twitter's hosting provider, NTT America, will begin scheduled maintenance at 11:00PM PT/06:00AM UTC. This maintenance will last approximately five hours.

During this maintenance, there will be periods of time when some users are unable to use Twitter. We do not expect these periods will last for the entire maintenance window.
