Search results temporarily disabled from logged-in homepage 11 years ago

We've had to temporarily disable search results from the logged-in homepage of twitter.com (this includes the saved searches and trends shown in the sidebar). We're working on the underlying problem and will bring back these features as soon as we can.

You can still search Twitter and see the latest trends at search.twitter.com.

Update (10:43p): This issue has been resolved.
