If you're having issues with Gmail, Google Docs, or Google Drive this morning, you're not alone.

According to Google's App Status Dashboard, the services are all experiencing a partial outage, which is kind of a big deal when millions of people rely on them each day.

Google says it will report on what caused the issues once its investigation team figures out what happened. "In the meantime, for everyone who is affected, we apologize — we know you count on Google to work for you and we're working hard to restore normal operation for you," the company told VentureBeat in a statement.
